Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and Dealing with Related Party Transactions

1. SCOPE, APPLICABILITY AND PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The Company may enter into transactions with Related Parties to leverage scale, size and drive operational synergies and such Related Party Transactions can present a potential or actual conflict of interest which may be against the best interest of the Company and its shareholders.

Related party transactions have been one of the major areas of focus for corporate governance reforms being initiated in India. The changes introduced in the corporate governance norms through Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013, as amended and the rules framed thereunder ("Companies Act") and Regulation 23 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligation and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended ("SEBI Listing Regulations") require the companies to have enhanced transparency and due process for approval of the related party transactions. Pursuant thereto, Section 188 of the Companies Act and Regulation 23 of the SEBI Listing Regulations require the Company to formulate a policy on materiality of related party transactions and also on dealing with related party transactions including clear threshold limits duly approved by the Board.

Considering the requirements for approval of Related Party Transactions as prescribed under the Act, the Company has framed this Policy in order to ensure that the Related Party Transactions are in compliance with the applicable legal requirements. This Policy is recommended by the Audit Committee for the approval of the Board.

Directors are also required to provide the information regarding their engagement with other entities which may be regarded as related parties during the financial year.

4. MANNER OF DEALING WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

4.1 Identification of Related Parties

The Company shall as per the clause 2 of the Policy and on the basis of information received from Directors, KMPs shall identify and update the list of Related Parties, from time to time.

On the basis of the above referred information received by the Company and basis of the Act, a consolidated list of the Related Parties shall be prepared by the Company.

Every department shall, prior to entering into any contract or arrangement with a related party, ascertain whether the proposed contract or arrangement satisfies the approval mechanism prescribed under this policy.

The contract / arrangement satisfying the aforesaid approval mechanism shall not be entered into without requisite approval from Audit Committee / Board / Shareholder as the case may be. Compliance with this condition shall be strictly adhered to by every department proposing the underlying contract or arrangement.

4.2 Identification of Related Party Transactions

The Company based on the consolidated list of the Related Parties shall identify the Related Party Transactions as defined under clause 2.11. Audit Committee or Company will determine whether a transaction does constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this policy. The Audit Committee or the Company may seek external expert's opinion to identify any particular contract or arrangement or transaction is coming under the purview of a Related Party Transaction, if necessary.

4.3 PROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

4.3.1 Approval of the Audit Committee

All Related Party Transactions shall require approval of the Audit Committee. In case any member of the Audit Committee or his/ her Relative is interested in any potential Related Party Transaction, such member shall abstain from voting when such transaction is being considered and such member shall not be present at the meeting during discussions on the subject matter of the resolution relating to such Related Party Transaction.

4.3.2 All the transactions which are identified as Related Party Transactions and subsequent material modifications thereto should be pre-approved by the Audit Committee of the Company by only those members who are independent directors.

4.3.3 In case of Related Party Transaction to which the subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not party, shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company if value of such transaction to be entered individually or taken together with previous transactions during the financial year exceeds 10 % of the Annual Standalone Turnover, as per last audited financial statements of the Subsidiary.

4.3.4 The Company may obtain omnibus approval from the Audit Committee for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company, subject to compliances with the following conditions:

- a. The Audit Committee shall, after obtaining approval of the Board, specify the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with the Policy and such approval shall include the following namely:
 - i maximum value of the transaction, in aggregate, which can be allowed under the omnibus route in a year;
 - ii the maximum value per transaction which can be allowed;
 - iii extent and manner of disclosures to be made to the Audit Committee at the time of seeking omnibus approval;
 - iv review, at such intervals as the Audit Committee may deem fit, Related Party Transaction entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval made;
 - v transactions which cannot be subject to the omnibus approval by the Audit Committee.

- b. The Audit Committee shall consider the following factors while specifying the criteria for making omnibus approval, namely:-
 - i repetitiveness of the transactions (in past or in future);
 - ii justification for the need of omnibus approval.
- c. The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself regarding the need for such omnibus approval for transactions of repetitive nature and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
- d. The omnibus approval shall contain or indicate the following:-
 - i names of the Related Parties;
 - ii nature and duration of the transaction;
 - iii maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into;
 - iv the indicative base price or current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price, if any; and
 - v any other information relevant or important for the Audit Committee to take a decision on the proposed transaction:

Provided that where the need for Related Party Transactions cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rupees 1 (one) Crore per transaction.
- e. The Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the aggregated value and other details of Related Party Transactions transacted into by the Company pursuant to the omnibus approval given;
- f. The omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one financial year and shall require fresh approval after expiry of such financial year;
- g. Omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the Company; and
- h. Any other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.

4.3.5 Information to be placed before the Audit Committee for such Related Party Transactions

The following information shall be placed before the Audit Committee:

- a. Name of the Related Party and nature of relationship;
- b. Name of the Director or Key Managerial Personnel who is related; (as applicable)
- c. Nature, duration, material terms and monetary value of the proposed Related Party Transaction along with justification for entering into such transaction;
- d. An assessment of whether the proposed Related Party Transaction is on terms that are comparable with the terms available to un-related parties;
- e. An opinion from external consultant, if any, certifying that the proposed Related Party Transaction is on Arm's Length Transaction basis;
- f. Any advance paid or received for the proposed Related Party Transaction;
- g. In case of transactions not falling under omnibus approval, manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of contract and not considered as part of the contract; and
- h. Any other information relevant or important for the members to take a decision on the proposed Related Party Transaction.

4.3.6 Following measures will strengthen Related Party Transactions to ensure the same are Arm's Length Transactions

- Transaction is a part of a public auction or is conducted by competitive bids;
- It's approved within the Board approved policy and authorisation structure of the Company;
- The Related Party or it's nominee excuses itself during the deliberations and proceeding of approval of such transactions;
- The transaction is based on market related prices.

Measurement of the Arm's Length Transactions

a) Acquisition of Financial Assets

- In case if the Company goes ahead with acquisition of financial assets and the sell down of investments is concluded before first net asset value rating, the arm's length price for the transaction will be at same price plus some interest for the intervening period.
- If the transaction occurs subsequent to net asset value rating, the arm's length price should be justified based on the market expected returns of the investors in the market.

b) Providing/Availing Loans & Advances

Rate of interest should be at par with the prevailing bank interest rates.

c) Any other services

Rates of such services should be in line with the prevailing market practices.

In an unforeseen event where a Related Party Transaction, for which the omnibus approval has not been given by the Audit Committee, needs to be entered due to business exigencies between two Audit Committee meetings, the Audit Committee may approve such Related Party Transaction by passing a resolution by circulation, after satisfying itself that such transaction is in the interest of the Company.

The Related Party Transactions which have an omnibus approval by the Audit Committee shall be submitted to the Executive Committee of the Company for its consideration.

4.3.7 Factors to be considered by the transaction approving Committee while approving Related Party Transactions

- a. Whether the terms of the proposed Related Party Transaction are fair and on Arm's Length Transaction basis;
- b. Whether the Related Party Transaction is in the Ordinary Course of Business of the Company;
- c. Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;

- d. Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of an independent Director;
- e. Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any Director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company;
- f. Whether the proposed Related Party Transaction is in the best interest of the Company;
- g. Whether the proposed Related Party Transaction is permissible under the provisions of the applicable law;
- h. Whether such contract or arrangement or transaction is entered into on terms no less favourable to the Company than terms generally available to an unaffiliated third party under the same or similar circumstances; and
- i. Any other factors as the committee deems relevant.

4.3.8 Approval of the Board

As per the provisions of section 188 of the Act, all kinds of transactions specified under the said section and which are not in the Ordinary Course of Business or not at Arm's Length Transaction basis, shall be placed before the Board for its approval. The agenda of the Board meeting at which the resolution in this regard is proposed to be moved shall disclose:

- (a) the name of the Related Party and nature of relationship;
- (b) the nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- (c) the material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
- (d) any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
- (e) the manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of contract and not considered as part of the contract;
- (f) whether all factors relevant to the contract have been considered, if not, the details of factors not considered with the rationale for not considering those factors; and

- (g) any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

In addition to the above, the following kinds of transactions with Related Parties are also placed before the Board for its approval apart from approval of the Audit Committee:

- (a) Transactions which may be in the Ordinary Course of Business and at Arm's Length Transaction basis, but which are beyond value threshold and/ or other parameters as per the policy determined by the Board from time to time;
- (b) Transactions in respect of which the Audit Committee is unable to determine whether or not they are in the Ordinary Course of Business and/or at Arm's Length Transaction basis and decides to refer the same to the Board for approval;
- (c) Transactions which are in the Ordinary Course of Business and at Arm's Length Transaction basis, but which as per Audit Committee requires Board approval.

Where any Director or his/ her Relative is concerned or interested in any potential Related Party Transaction, such Director shall abstain from voting when such transaction is being considered and such Director shall not be present at the meeting during discussions on the subject matter of the resolution relating to such Related Party Transaction.

The contracts or arrangements with a related party under section 188 of Companies Act to which the Director is a party to, shall be maintained in one or more registers in Form MBP 4.

In case there is any change in the approved limits/terms of any transactions, a separate statement shall be attached for ratification by the Audit Committee/ Board. The Audit Committee/ Board also have the authority to modify previously approved Related Party Transactions.

4.3.9 Approval of the Shareholders of the Company

All kinds of transactions with Related Parties specified under section 188 of the Act which (a) are not at Arm's Length Transaction basis or not in the Ordinary Course of Business; and (b) exceed the thresholds laid down in Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014 and subsequent material modifications thereto shall be placed before the shareholders of the Company for their approval.

However, the said requirement would not be applicable in respect of a resolution plan approved under section 31 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 subject to the event being disclosed to the recognized stock exchanges within one day of the resolution plan being approved by the National Company Law Tribunal.

However, the requirement of the Company's shareholders' approval shall not be applicable for the transactions entered between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with the Company and transactions entered into between two wholly owned subsidiaries of the listed holding company, whose accounts are consolidated with such holding company and is placed before the shareholders of the Company at the general meeting for approval.

All entities/individuals falling under the definitions of "Related Parties" shall abstain from voting on such shareholders' resolution to approve any contract or arrangement or transaction which may be entered into by the Company, whether such entities/individuals are a party to the transaction or not.

5. DISCLOSURES & REPORTING

The Company shall disclose, in the Board's report, transactions prescribed in section 188(1) of the Act with Related Parties, which are not in Ordinary Course of Business or not at Arm's Length Transaction basis along with the justification for entering into such transaction.

The Company shall keep and maintain a register, physically or electronically, as may be decided by the Board, giving separately the particulars of all contracts or arrangements or transactions to which the Policy applies. The aforesaid register shall be preserved by the Company permanently and shall be kept in the custody of the Company Secretary or any other person authorized by the Board for this purpose.

A summary statement of the Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company shall be submitted to the Audit Committee in its quarterly meetings for information, review and noting.

The details of material transactions with related parties will be included in the corporate governance reports which are required to be submitted to the stock exchanges on a quarterly basis.

The Company shall, on the date of publication of its standalone and consolidated financial results for each half year, make disclosures of related party transactions on a consolidated basis to the respective stock exchanges, in the format specified in the relevant accounting standards and also publish the same on its website.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY

In the event the Company becomes aware of a transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved in accordance with this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee.

In case the Company is not able to take prior approval from the Audit Committee, such a transaction shall not be deemed to violate this Policy, or be invalid or unenforceable, so long as the transaction is informed to the Audit Committee as promptly as reasonably practical after it is entered into or after it becomes reasonably apparent that the transaction is covered by this Policy.

The Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. The Audit Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Audit Committee under this Policy and failure of the internal control systems, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

The members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) the value of the ratified transaction(s) with a related party, whether entered into individually or taken together, during a financial year shall not exceed rupees one crore;
- (ii) the transaction is not material in terms of the provisions of the regulation;
- (iii) rationale for inability to seek prior approval for the transaction shall be placed before the audit committee at the time of seeking ratification;
- (iv) the details of ratification shall be disclosed along with the disclosures of related party transactions in terms of the provisions of the regulation;
- (v) any other condition as specified by the audit committee:

Ratification, if any, of a Related Party Transaction after its commencement or completion shall be approved by the Audit Committee in exceptional circumstances only.

In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without approval, the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, discontinuation of the transaction or seeking the approval of the shareholders of the Company, payment of compensation by the defaulting person (as may be decided by the Audit Committee) to the Related Party or the Company as the case may be, etc. In connection with any review/approval of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT PREVIOUSLY APPROVED

Where any contract or arrangement or transaction is entered into by a Director or any other employee of the Company with a Related Party, without obtaining the necessary approval(s) and if such contract or arrangement or transaction is not ratified by the Audit Committee or the Board or by the shareholders of the Company, as the case may be, at a meeting held within 3 (three) months from the date on which such contract or arrangement or transaction was entered into, such contract or arrangement or transaction shall be voidable at the option of the Audit Committee or the Board or the shareholders of the Company and if the contract or arrangement or transaction is with a Related Party to any Director, or is authorized by any other Director, the concerned Director(s) of the Company shall indemnify the Company against any loss incurred by the Company.

The Company may proceed against a Director or any other employee of the Company who had entered into such contract or arrangement or transaction in contravention of the Policy for recovery of any loss sustained by the Company as a result of such contract or arrangement or transaction and shall take any such action as it may deem fit depending upon the relevant facts and circumstances.

8. DEEMED APPROVAL

The transactions or arrangements which are specifically dealt under the separate provisions of the applicable law and executed under separate approvals/procedures from relevant competent authority or committee shall be deemed to be approved under this Policy. Such transactions include the following:

- i. Appointment and payment of remuneration, including any variations thereto, to Key Managerial Personnel pursuant to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee approval;
- ii. Payment of remuneration, fees, commission, etc. to the Directors pursuant to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee approval;
- iii. Remuneration and sitting fees paid by the listed entity or its subsidiary to its director, key managerial personnel or senior management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the audit committee provided that the same is not material.

9. REVIEW AND AMENDMENT OF THE POLICY

The Policy may be amended or substituted by the Board as and when required or when there are statutory or regulatory changes necessitating the change in the Policy. This Policy shall be reviewed by the Board on the recommendation of Audit Committee on an annual basis. Any deviation from the policy shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

10. COMPLIANCE & COMMUNICATION

The compliance of this Policy shall be the joint responsibility of the Chief Executive Officer & Managing Director and the Company Secretary, who shall have the power to ask for any information or clarifications from the management of the Company in this regard.

This Policy will be communicated to all Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and other concerned persons of the Company and shall be posted on the website of the company at www.arcil.co.in and a web link thereto shall be provided in the Annual Report of the Company.
