BJP leadership has no trust in its workers from Maharashtra: Uddhav

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
 MUMBAI, NOVEMBER 17

SHIV SENA (UBT) chief Uddhav Thackeray on Sunday said that the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) leadership has lost trust of the BJP workers in Maharashtra and the BJP bringing in workers from outside the state meant, the state BJP has lost already.
 "I heard a statement from BJP leader Pankaja Munde, where she spoke about 90,000 outsiders from Gujarat coming to Maharashtra to watch over every single booth. They are here today to watch over us, tomorrow they will snatch Mumbai and Maharashtra...when people coming from outside means the BJP Maharashtra has lost already. "And it also means, BJP leadership has no trust in BJP workers from Maharashtra," Thackeray said. He was addressing an election campaign rally in Mumbai's BKC for the opposition Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) candidates.

"Never before has an election been fought where workers from outside have been brought to keep a watch on the voters," he slammed.
 He said that deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis is inciting riots in Maharashtra by using words like 'Dharmayuddha'. "Is Dharmayuddha word allowed under code of conduct? During the Lok Sabha, we were asked to remove the word Hindu Dharma? What are you trying to achieve? You are inciting riots in Maharashtra. Modiji, your disciple is doing nothing but creating rifts," said Thackeray, adding that the election commission should be approached over the use of this word.
 "Fadnavis has been using words like 'Vote Jihad', 'Dharmayuddha' to indicate Muslims voting for the MVA. Are Muslims banned from voting? You keep calm when Mohan Bhagwat (RSS chief) visits Jama Masjid or PM Modi goes there," Thackeray said.

Thackeray termed the ruling Mahayuti as 'Mahajhooti' (biggest liars) and said, "If Mahajhooti wins, Gujarat will burst crackers. I am not against all Gujaratis or traders, some are with us. I have no anger against Gujarat or Gujarati voters in Mumbai and Maharashtra. But you should realise that Modi and Shah are building a wall between you and the country. Once they are gone, this wall will turn worse than the Berlin wall," he said. Thackeray urged Gujarat workers to step up and stop the transfer of businesses to Gujarat.
 Slamming the BJP, Thackeray termed the party as a hybrid which has not remained original. "The party has no longer remained original...this election is important because we are seeking justice from you (crowd) as I haven't yet got justice from the court. I want justice from you all," he said. "Modiji you are already defeated when you have to seek votes in the name of Balasaheb Thackeray, whose party you think you have destroyed," said Thackeray.
